

1074 Butler Drive Crystal Lake, IL 60014
sportingchancepress.com
815-245-9774

March 1, 2010

PRESS RELEASE

Thorne Plays Double-Header in La Crosse

Crystal Lake, IL—Sporting Chance Press™, Inc. announced that The 10 Commandments of Baseball author J. D. Thorne plays a “speaker’s double-header” today in La Crosse, Wisconsin. Thorne will be the featured guest on the “Talkin’ Baseball” Radio Show hosted by La Crosse Loggers General Manager, Chris Goodell and Assistant General Manager, Ben Kapanke. The Talkin’ Baseball show takes place in front of a live audience at the Stoney Creek Inn in Onalaska and airs on Eagle 102.7 FM and ESPN Radio 1290 AM from 5-7 p.m.

Thorne is also presenting at the Loggers Hot Stove meeting immediately following the radio show. Thorne’s presentation is on the 10 commandments of baseball—the fundamental baseball principles espoused by legendary manager, Joe McCarthy.

The La Crosse Loggers (www.lacrosseloggers.com), based in La Crosse, Wisconsin, play in the Northwoods League, a NCAA sanctioned summer league. The Loggers play home games at the “Lumber Yard” in historic Copeland Park in La Crosse. The Northwoods League is a collegiate summer baseball league comprised of teams of the top college players who have NCAA eligibility the time of play.

Sporting Chance Press publishes sports books that entertain, inform and inspire readers to improve their game in life. Larry Norris, the company’s founder, has over 35 years of publishing and bookselling experience. For more information visit www.sportingchancepress.com. Contact Larry Norris at 815-245-9774 or write lmj.norris@sportingchancepress.com.